DEDICATION

Because it has long been recognized that our college and its reputation are great insofar as her students, faculty and alumni are great, this 1971 edition of the Thorobred is dedicated to Dr. Eugene D. Raines.

The staff did not find it difficult this year to find an individual who has a profound effect upon Kentucky

State College. He received his Bachelor degree from Howard University, Master degrees from Fisk University and Indiana University, and Doctorate from Indiana University, all in Chemistry. Dr. Raines previously taught at Paine College in Augusta, Georgia, and he held an assistantship while obtaining his Doctorate at Indiana University. He came to Kentucky State in 1935. Dr. Raines belongs to the following honorary societies: Alpha Kappa Mu, Beta Kappa Chi, and Phi Lambda Upsilon.

Dr. Raines has written articles for the The American Chemical Society and the Indiana Academy of Science. Since he has been at Kentucky State College, he has done research and testing of metals for the H. K. Porter Co.

He is married to the former Vivian Johnson and to this union was born two sons, Horace and Eugene Jr.

And so today, we the members of the Kentucky State College family, desire to recognize the high caliber of leadership that has been given us by one whom we consider "A Man For All Seasons." We salute you and dedicate to you the 1971 edition of the THOROBRED.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS, EMILIE S. HIGH

March 4, 1914-November 27, 1970
After the rain comes the rainbow,
After the storm, the sun,
And daylight breaks across the sky
After the night is done;
Life brings the sweet with the bitter,
Laughter will follow tears,
Just as after the snows of winter,
The glory of springtime appears!
Katherine Nelson Davis

MRS. MAZIE BOCLAIR

February, 1970-February 18, 1970
It is in times of calamity—in days and nights of sorrow and trouble—that the presence, the sufficiency, and the sympathy of God grow very sure and very wonderful. Then we find out that the grace of God is sufficient for all our needs; for every broken heart and for every human sorrow.

Peter Marshall

FIRST ROW: Frank Jones, John Lattimore, Lloyd Owens, D'Artagnan Martin, Kenneth Meeks, SECOND ROW: Dwight Carter, Reginald Norris, Milton Mills.

The Kentucky State College Thorobred football team opened the 1970 season with an air of optimism. Under the skillful coachmanship of Mr. Leroy Smith, the team experienced a strenuous and beneficial training program beneath the hot sun of the August and September months.

When times were looking unfavorable for the team, it seemed that the spectators turned away from the team, and perhaps even the sport. The leadership of a new coaching staff and the spirit of the team to win brought the true lovers of the sport back to the rooting side of the team.

The Thorobred consisted of a large group of freshmen and a few returning experienced upperclassmen. Although this season was unsuccessful for the Thorobreds, the team never failed to display that winning Kentucky spirit on the gridiron.

The Thorobreds, "Getting Ready".

Set???

Go! And here comes Quinn. . . Cut back quick.

I could have gone all the way if that. . .tackle had blocked.

Wiley to the rescue, over and over again.

Someday, I may win the Superbowl with this great form of mine.

Hey, if you need me. . . ,Oh God, he'll never make it that way.

Thorobreds on the rampage, "Look out baby cause here we come."

The track team under the able leadership of Coach Kenneth Gibson, has retained a dynasty in track and field here at Kentucky State College.

Not only is the track team doing exceptionally well, but it has also taken on a new look. The new look is a women's track team; the members are; Barbara Croney, Marsha Smith, Brenda Grinard, and Deborah Edison.

In the men's division, the mile relay team, consisting of Steve Jordan, Ronald Murphy, Allen Pinkston, and William Jones have received two first place, one second place, and one third place in four track meets. They set a new record at the Mason Dixon Meet with a time 3:17.4

In past years the track team has been under—rated, but the men and women comprising the teams are showing that they can keep the tradition of the Thorobred, track team alive. RUNNERS TO YOUR MARK!!

BASKETBALL

The Thorobreds were expected to be high in the small college rating during the 1970-71 season. As defending NAIA champs they should have expected recognition of their abilities, but especially because only one team member graduated the year before, the Thorobreds were expected to be a power house. The pressure of being defending champs and thereby having every team on the schedule hoping to upset the 'Champs' was present throughout the season. Along with the pressure came nation-wide recognition.

In one week K-State's team was featured in articles of News-week, Sport's Illustrated, and Sport. National press recognition was suddenly expected and no longer an exceptional incident.

1970 Small College Coach of the Year, Lucious Mitchell expected great deeds to be done by the Thorobred team in 1970-71 and was not disappointed. The Thorobred Waltzed through their schedule, losing only twice, once in a debacle of ineptitude at Georgia Southern and to Tennessee State at Nashville in what is perennially a battle royal more often decided by the referee than by the players. Coach Mitchell gathered more honors this year by becoming NAIA District 24 Coach of the Year.

All American Travis Grant continued his dead-eye shooting. He consistingly hit 25 points a game and consistently hit better than 55% of his shots. Some rival coaches and pro scouts have dubbed the "Machine" the purest shooter in the country and perhaps the best they have ever seen.

Big "E", Elmore Smith, another All American and at seven feet tall is the most intimidating player on the THOROBRED team has had another great year. Continually scoring above twenty-five points a game and gathering over twenty rebounds a game, he was the most dominating man among the small colleges, and one of the best big men in the country.

Captain William "Bird" Graham received a chance to prove himself as a starter this year. He was under some pressure because filling Michael Bernard's (the only regular who graduated in 1970) shoe's was a tall order. The "Bird" didn't disappoint anyone. He consistently hit in double figures in points and rebounds, and specialized along with "E" in defense, blocking shots and intimidating his opponent often to the point of distraction.

Jerome Brister continued to function as play maker and floor general for the Thorobreds. He directed the offense and defense and when needed was depended upon to score. Score he did when necessary since he is probably the second best marksman on the team.

Jerry Stafford has proven to be an invaluable asset to to the Thorobreds. His lightning quick hands and blinding speed have tormented countless foes and often resulted in breaking open close games.

At press time K-State had won the District Twenty-Four Tourncy at Bethal, Tennessee and was preparing to defend their title at Kansas City in the N.A.I.A. Tournament. In addition, the National Invitation Tournament board of selection was considering inviting the Thorobreds to New York City to participate in their prestigious, major college tournament.

President of Kentucky State College Dr. Carl M. Hili-

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Kentucky State College moves with pride and confidence into the decade of the Seventies (70's): mainly because the Sixities (60's) left us with a renewed conviction to maintain uncompromising quality in teaching; learning, scholarship, and service to the Commonwealth and the nation. For us the decade of the 60's was an era of unprecedented growth and development. Kentucky State College met the issues of the times, always seeking that which is best for her students and faculty.

We have laid the foundation for what we must accomplish in the years ahead, in terms of meaningful service to higher education. With responsible involvement of all elements of the college community, the students, faculty and alumni, Kentucky State College can meet the challenges of future years.

In American Colleges and Universities

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES fills a two-fold need. Support of the placement service and of the general program comes from two sources; sale of the publication and sale of the key emblem. Unlike many organizations, this does not require an initiation fee or the purchase of either the book or key emblem.

Nominations may be made of any junior or graduate at any school classified in the Educational Directory as a four-year degree-granting institution. Selections are based primarily on scholarship, leadership, campus activities, and general service to the school. A committee composed of faculty members, deans, and administrative officers designates which students will receive this honor. With the possibility of inclusion in a national merit directory such as this, all worthy students increase their efforts towards making their college careers as notable as possible.

KENTUCKY STATE COLLEGE MARCHING BAND

Get Ready!

Signed, Sealed, Delivered!

JAZZ BAND

This group is geared toward those musicians interested in the jazz idiom. It offers expression through original compositions, arranging, and experiences through performing experience. Swing on . . .

KENTUCKY STATE COLLEGE CONCERT CHOIR

The College Concert Choir shown here in a dimensional shot is multidimensional itself with a varied repertoire and a versatile director. They have been instrumental in spreading the sweet sound of Kentucky State over the country for a number of years and have maintained a standard of quality, true musicianship and versatility under the able leadership of Mr. Carl H. Smith. Sing on!

OPERA WORKSHOP

This year the Opera Workshop made its debut at Kentucky State College. Essentially intended for Music Majors, it is open to all those interested in performance of Opera and Musicals. We hope the experience will only be a stepping stone to the future and maybe our amateurs of today will be professionals of tomorrow.

Pres' listens to the talk . . .

You saw us where? Not us!!

Smile, we're on Candid Camera.

Kick the habit.

The look of love . . .

The End CHARLIE

No, not tonight. But if you insist . . .

Heaven help us all.

Kappa did it to me!

I'm during my THANG.

I wonder are they really looking.

Kappa did it to me also.

I don't play that Hog stuff . . . But mule maybe . . .

Lovers of the year!

Yeah, man . . . and then . . .

Zeta, what is it . . .

Really . . .

Yeah. Brother . . .

I don't have much of a choice.

Hey, I don't want this.

What is "Sin" city?

Yeah, they said you're the one.

So if Kappa did, Alpha did it to me.

We know we're bad.

It's been a long hard day.

They finally got me.

Yes, I'll wait for you.

Where's the rest of the class?

No, this isn't the Social Science test.

Yeah!!!!!

KENTUCKY STATE WINS SECOND NAIA TITLE

The Kentucky State College THOROBREDS took control of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Tournament championship game from its outset and breezed to its second straight NAIA national championship with a 102 - 82 thrashing of Eastern Michigan in Kansas City.

Travis Grant, a 6'8" forward from Clayton, Alabama set a new NAIA tournament field goal record of 77 two-pointers, while pacing the Thorobred win over Eastern Michigan with 43 points. The old field goal record was 72.

Grant and 7'0" All-American Elmore Smith were named to the all-tournament team and Grant was the overwhelming choice for the tournament's Most Valuable Player award. William Graham was selected to the second all-tourney team.

Behind the 25, point performance of Grant, Kentucky State cased into a 57-40 half-time lead and was never challenged during the entire contest.

NAIA Coach of the Year Lucias Mitchell had the THOROBREDS cager to get at the Miehigan team and State responded with a sound beating of Michigan. The score was a new high for a winning team in a championship game.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS

FELLOW STUDENTS,

It is my sincere hope that this edition of the Thorobred in the future years will recapture some of the hearts and minds of those who lived and experienced the many walks of life at Kentucky State College during the moments, seconds, minutes, hours, days, and months, of the year, 1970-1971.

I wish to express my gratitude to the staff and our photographer, Mr. Rodgers, who worked so earnestly as deadlines approached. There may be gold and multitudes of pearls, but the hands of labour, I think, are the most precious jewels.

Years from now, turn to these pages and you may be able to recapture the happenings of 1970-'71. "These were our times."

Theresa Maria Smith

With memories of fondest moments,

Theresa Maria Smith Editor-in-Chief
